IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- There is a nonrefundable $50 application processing fee. This fee is required of all nondegree applicants, whether or not you have applied to Purdue in the past.
- Nondegree status is for residents of Tippecanoe and contiguous counties unless approved by the Office of Admissions.
- A $200 late registration fee will be assessed to anyone who schedules for the fall or spring semesters on or after the second Monday of classes; for all summer modules, this fee will be assessed on the second day of classes.
- Nondegree students may take up to seven hours of coursework during the fall and spring semesters; a per-credit-hour fee will be charged. During the summer session, nondegree students may take up to six hours of coursework; those taking six will be charged full fees. Exceptions to the number of credit hours a student may carry are granted to students who have completed a bachelor's degree and to visiting college students who provide documentation that they are in academic good standing at any previous or current institution attended and who plan to transfer the credit(s) back to their current institution.
- Local high school students wishing to take a class must bring a copy of their most recent high school transcript along with a signed permission statement from the guidance office each semester they wish to take a class.
- Nondegree students are not eligible for financial aid.
- Because of resource limitations, Purdue University reserves the right to stop accepting applications at any time.
- Nondegree students who wish to take 600-level courses and any nondegree students with a bachelor's degree who wish to take 500- or 600-level courses should apply through the Graduate School.
- Nondegree students enroll in regular credit coursework and establish a Purdue University academic record which may be applied to a degree program at a later date. Admission as a nondegree student does not guarantee admission as a degree-seeking student.
- Be aware that there are deadlines regarding when students can withdraw and/or modify their schedules and that refunds are based on when a student withdraws or drops a class.
- Falsified information provided on the application may result in denial of admission and/or termination of enrollment at Purdue University.

POLICY STATEMENTS

Nondiscrimination - Purdue University is committed to maintaining a community which recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the University seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The University believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life.

Purdue University views, evaluates, and treats all persons in any University related activity or circumstance in which they may be involved, solely as individuals on the basis of their own personal abilities, qualifications, and other relevant characteristics.

Purdue University prohibits discrimination against any member of the University community on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, or status as a veteran. The University will conduct its programs, services and activities consistent with applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and orders and in conformance with the procedures and limitations as set forth in Executive Memorandum No. D-1, which provides specific contractual rights and remedies. Additionally, the University promotes the full realization of equal employment opportunity for women, minorities, persons with disabilities and veterans through its affirmative action program.

Safety - The University strives to provide a safe and secure environment for students, staff, and visitors. The University distributes an Annual Security Report containing campus crime statistics and information relating to campus safety and security policies and programs. The Report is available on the Web at www.purdue.edu/police. A paper copy may be requested by calling (765) 494-8221 or contacting the Purdue University Police Department, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907.

Social Security Number - The Social Security number (SSN) is requested as the most effective way to uniquely identify you to accurately process your application and match it with other records such as SAT or ACT scores, transcripts, and financial aid. Its use is restricted to secure University business processes, such as those necessary for federal and state reporting as well as institutional purposes. Applicants are not required to provide their SSN.

Students with Disabilities - Purdue University is committed to providing equal access and equal opportunity to university courses, activities, and programs for students with disabilities. Students with documented disabilities that substantially limit a major life activity, such as learning, walking, or seeing, may qualify for academic adjustments and/or services. To request information about academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, or services, please contact the Disability Resource Center in the Office of the Dean of Students, 830 Young Hall, (765) 494-1247 (V/TTY), drc@purdue.edu.

Intellectual Property - All students are subject to the University policy on intellectual property, which can be found at www.purdue.edu/policies/pages/teach_res_outreach/viii.4.1.htm.

PUID - Upon admission to Purdue University, you will be assigned a ten-digit Purdue identification number (PUID). This number will be your official University identifier and will appear on your Purdue identification card. Your PUID will be required for your secure access to many University services and personal records and should not be shared with anyone.

Records - All records submitted by and on behalf of an applicant become the property of Purdue. Residence — Purdue reserves the right to request documentary evidence in support of a residence claim.

Students with Disabilities - Purdue University is committed to providing equal access and equal opportunity to university courses, activities, and programs for students with disabilities. Students with documented disabilities that substantially limit a major life activity, such as learning, walking, or seeing, may qualify for academic adjustments and/or services. To request information about academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, or services, please contact the Disability Resource Center in the Office of the Dean of Students, 830 Young Hall, (765) 494-1247 (V/TTY), drc@purdue.edu.

Application - Falsified information provided on the application may result in denial of admission and/or termination of enrollment at Purdue University.
