Enter the east entrance of the Purdue Memorial Union, across the street from the Grant Street Parking Garage. PMU houses the Purdue Welcome Center and serves as the student hub for dining and gathering.

2 STEWART CENTER

West of PMU, Stewart Center is home to computer labs, Humanities, Social Sciences and Education Library (HSSE), Eliza Fowler Hall, Loeb Playhouse, Stewart Center Gallery and more.

3 MEMORIAL MALL

Head west across the street towards the flag pole and through the Class of 1897 Gateway. Say "Hey" to Boilermakers on Hello Walk as you make your way across the Memorial Mall. John Purdue, Purdue's benefactor and namesake, sits quietly on a bench east of University Hall and south of John Purdue's grave.

4 FOUNDERS PARK

Keep walking west and you'll see Loeb Fountain, the iconic landmark at the center of Founders Park. "Distant Paths," a bronze and stainless steel sculpture by Preston Jackson, captures the diversity of people's ongoing journeys. Located between Beering and University halls, it was installed to celebrate the College of Liberal Arts' 50th anniversary in 2014.

5 ELLIOTT HALL OF MUSIC

Directly north, you'll pass the Hail Purdue Wall, in front of Elliott Hall of Music, ranked among the top-5 most amazing campus theatres.

6 PURDUE MALL WATER SCULPTURE

Head north, and check out the majestic fountain, often referred to as Engineering Fountain, located in front of Howde Hall, which houses the Office of the President.

7 OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS

is located straight ahead in Schleman Hall of Student Services. Admissions counselors are available to answer questions from 8 a.m.–5 p.m. daily. Walk-ins welcomed.

Make your way north, down the wide sidewalk (Ross-Ade stadium can be seen in the distance), towards Stadium Avenue. At the end you will pass the Neil Armstrong Hall of Engineering.

9 UNIVERSITY RESIDENCES ALUMNI AND GUEST CENTER

At the crosswalk, turn west on Stadium Avenue to make your way to Cary Quadrangle and Alumni and Guest Center (entrance directly across from Waldron St.). Learn about the many benefits of on-campus living and check out 'mock' res hall rooms. Open M–F, 9 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Now head north through Cary Hall to the open grassy area, steps away from Ross-Ade Stadium and Mackey Arena.

10 FORD DINING COURT

Directly west, across from Cary, on Stadium Ave., you'll find one of five award-winning dining courts open to students and visitors.
